The recipient of two Fulbright Scholarships, Mr. Mancinelli was the first American to win the coveted Busoni Piano Competition in Bolzano, Italy. Following enrollment at Oberlin Conservatory he studied with Firkusny and Arrau, and, in Italy, with Carlo Zecchi. He has concertized extensively in Europe and Asia. An Associate Professor of Music at Tulsa University, his appearance here is a part of an exchange by which our Faculty Trio was recently presented in Tulsa. This recital is an event of the Ninth Fine Arts Festival.
