Performance Opportunities

Pittsburg State University offers many ensemble opportunities including: wind ensemble, jazz ensemble, jazz combo, marching band, a full symphony orchestra, string orchestra, choir, chamber choir, jazz choir, and various chamber music ensembles in areas such as trombone, trumpet, tuba, mixed brass, strings, woodwinds, and percussion. Several of these groups have performed at various professional events like the Kansas Music Educators In-Service Workshop and the Midwest Trombone Workshop. All of these groups are open to music majors and non-majors alike.

Scholarships

The University administers a major financial aid program that includes scholarships, grants, and loans. We offer general music scholarships available to music majors, minors, and non-majors. Members of the Marching Band and Pep Band receive stipends for their participation in those ensembles. In the string area we have endowed string scholarships that offer significant financial assistance for deserving string students. Many students from Missouri and Oklahoma can attend Pitt State at our low in-state tuition rate. This includes Tulsa county residents.

Audition dates:
