Bio for Guest Artist

Jon Gregory has been the Visiting Instructor of Tuba and Euphonium at the University of Central Missouri since 2005. He received his Bachelors of Music Education from UCM, in the spring of 2001, and his Masters of Music from the University of Akron, with emphasis in Tuba Performance, in the spring of 2003. His primary teachers have been, Dr. Charles McAdams and Mr. Tucker Jolly. He has also studied with Craig Knox and Patrick Sheridan. While completing his master's degree, he performed with the Ashland Symphony Orchestra, University of Akron Graduate Brass Quintet, and the Cuyahoga Valley Brass Band. He has assisted for marching band in the states of Ohio and Missouri for multiple high schools. He has just returned from a week long series of master classes and other teaching at Eastern New Mexico University, in Portales, New Mexico. He is very active as a clinician, performer, and private teacher throughout the Midwest.
