

Electronic Thesis Copyright Agreement

Pittsburg State University acknowledges and upholds federal and state copyright laws. Copyright protections exist for documents and information distributed and shared via the Internet. Pittsburg State University accepts the copyright guidelines outlined in the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. Pittsburg State University is an "online service provider" to the campus community and takes these responsibilities seriously. Pittsburg State University's students, faculty and staff must adhere to ethical copyright practices.

Copyright privileges now vest immediately upon creating your work, without the requirement of notice or registration. However, you should still include a copyright notice on your thesis. For example, [©2012 by Jane Student. All rights reserved.] The notice should appear in a conspicuous location, customarily just after the title page.

Copyright registration is optional, but still recommended. It establishes a public record of your thesis and your copyright. In the U. S., registration is required before you can file an infringement lawsuit. Registration also allows you to be awarded damages and attorney fees in an infringement action. Generally, you must have registered before the infringement occurs to have these benefits. Because of the availability of content on the open web via institutional repositories, digital collections, and other avenues, registering for U. S. copyright can be a significant benefit for the protection of your work. For further information, see information in Title 17, Section 504 of the U. S. Code.
