INTRODUCTION

DONOR INFORMATION

The bulk of the collection was a gift from Edith Martin in 1995. The transcription and photocopy of a letter from Percy Daniels on February 14, 1910, was a gift from Arnie and Carolyn Maddox in 2000.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Percy Daniels (1840-1916) was born in Woonsocket, Rhode Island. Orphaned at the age of six, he was educated at Westminster Seminary in Vermont and the University Grammar School in Providence, Rhode Island, where he trained to be a civil engineer. During the Civil War, Daniels enlisted in the Union Army where he advanced to the rank of colonel. After the war he worked surveying railroads in the South, but was not happy with the prospects there. He migrated west to near present-day Girard, Kansas, with his newly wedded wife, Eliza Ann Eddy, in 1868. The couple owned and operated a farm and general store and would have four children that survived to adulthood. In 1873 the family moved back to New England where Daniels was a city engineer for Worcester, Massachusetts, and oversaw his brother's estate. In 1881, when the family moved back to their farm in Kansas, Daniels became the county surveyor for Crawford County, Kansas. He became a supporter of Populism, wrote books and pamphlets on government reform, and bought the Girard Herald newspaper in 1890 to spread his political ideology. In 1892 he was elected Lieutenant Governor of Kansas on the Populist ticket, and would be instrumental in settling the coal miners' strike in southeast Kansas in 1893. Following his retirement from public office after one term, Daniels remained a Populist theorist and political philosopher until his death.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Percy Daniels Collection consists mostly of correspondence received by Walter H. Daniels, financial and legal records, newspapers, and the writings of Percy Daniels.
