INTRODUCTION
This collection is comprised of various newspaper articles, family photos and slides, programs, personal cards and correspondence, financial records, and scrapbooks relating to local and national African American contributors to the Civil Rights movement, Black History and politicians. Most of the contents of the collection were focused around Black History.

DONOR INFORMATION
The materials within this collection were donated by Mrs. Marguerite Mitchell Marshall.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

She attended Fredrick Douglas School from 1917 to 1925; Pittsburg High School from 1925 to 1927, and College High from 1927 to 1929. She then received her bachelor’s degree from Kansas State Teachers College at Pittsburg in 1934. She received her master’s degree in English literature in 1950 from Howard University in Washington D.C. In 1953 she received her certificate in guidance and counseling at D.C. Teachers College at Washington, D.C. She taught school at Stapleton, Virginia, from 1934 to 1937. She taught at Dawson, Georgia, from 1937 to 1942. She also taught and was a guidance counselor for the District of Columbia School system from 1942 to 1972. She and her husband, Ulysses Marshall, moved back to Pittsburg where she worked as assistant children’s librarian at the Pittsburg Public Library from 1973 to 1989.

During her teaching in Dawson, Georgia, Marguerite met Ulysses Marshall. Ulysses and Marguerite were married August 19, 1939 in Dawson, Georgia. They were married for 41 years, until Ulysses’ death on March 5, 1980. Ulysses had served in the U.S. Army from 1940-1943, and in 1943 became a Top Secret Control Officer with U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D.C. He retired in 1970. They had no children. They attended the World’s Fair in New York and New Jersey in 1964, traveled to Honolulu, Hawaii, in August 1970, and often visited family.

Marguerite was involved with a copious amount of clubs, organizations, benefits, and associations. She was very actively involved in the Mt. Hebron Baptist Church of Pittsburg. Others organizations she was involved with include the Retired Teachers Association in Washington D.C., American Association of University Women, serving as the first vice-president from 1975 to 1979; the Creative Writing Group of AAUW from 1974 to 1987; a board member of the Crawford County Chapter of the American Red Cross, serving as treasurer from 1985 to 1988; a former board member of the Redbud Trail Girl Scout Council; The LaPetite Club; member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; The One Hundred Club of St. John’s Regional Medical Center; Century Club of Howard University; board member of the Carver Social League, serving as vice president from 1987 to 1989 and serving as the president at the time of her death in 2002. She was the treasurer for the Pittsburg Black Homecoming Club from 1975 to 1987; a member of the Association for the Study of African American Life and History, at Washington, D.C. She was also a member of the Friends of the Pittsburg Public Library.

She was an author as well as a school teacher, guidance counselor, wife, sister, advocate, and Sunday school teacher. She wrote The Negros Contributions During The First One Hundred Years of Growth, and other such titles as Christmas Is A Time Of Sharing; The Path To Peace; and An Account Of Afro-Americans In Southeast Kansas 1884-1984. She also wrote an article for the Joplin Public Library Archives entitled “The Emancipation Proclamation.”

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection is arranged primarily by her personal papers and the collection of significant Afro-American history papers and artifacts. The personal papers will be sorted into series folders of the following: Black History and Civil Rights; Family Correspondence; Financial and Identification Documents; Friends Correspondence; Funeral Programs and Correspondence; Mt. Hebron Baptist Church and Sunday School; Howard University and Education; Marshall Publications; Photographs, Slides and Scrapbooks; and Miscellaneous. The Black History and Civil Rights series is sorted between general black history and civil rights.

In the Howard University and Educational series, there are newspaper clippings and correspondence located inside the North East Junior High Yearbook.

There were many other newspaper and magazine articles that were removed from this collection due to the unrelated topics. The dates of the articles vary. A composed list of the removed items will be found after the index of this collection.
